SAME TIME NEXT YEAR

A Romantic Comedy by Bernard Slade

New Jersey accountant George and California housewife Doris first meet at a Northern California inn in February 1951. They have an weekend fling and then agree to meet the same weekend each year. Over the course of the next 24 years, they develop an emotional intimacy deeper than one would expect to find between two people meeting just once a year. Twenty five years of manners, morals and attitudes are hilariously mirrored by the lovers. Starring Jan Miller as Doris and Justin Atkins as George. Director is Karen Finn and producer is Mary Smith
